Novello, Ewer and Company
(1903)

Ah! my sweet sweeting;
My little pretty sweeting,
My sweeting will I love wherever I go;
She is so proper and pure,
So steadfast stable and demure,
There is none such, you may be sure,
As my sweet sweeting.

In all this world, as thinketh me,
Is none so pleasant to my e'e,
That I am glad so oft to see,
As my sweet sweeting.

When I behold my sweeting sweet,
Her face, her hands, her minion feet,
It seems to me there's nought so sweet
As my sweet sweeting.

Anon. ca. 1530
From a MS. Temp. Henry VIII.

William Henry Bell (1873-1946) was born in St. Albans, Hertfordshire. He studied at the Royal Academy of Music, the Royal College of Music and was a student of Sir Charles Villiers Stanford. He held a position as Professor of Harmony at the Royal Academy of Music but mainly made his living as an organist and lecturer. In 1912, Bell went to South Africa to direct the South African College of Music in Cape Town. In 1920, He became Professor of Music at the University of Cape Town. When the South African College of Music was incorporated into the University in 1923, Bell became Dean of the Faculty of Music. The W. H. Bell Music Library at the University of Cape Town is named in honor of him.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
