

Airs of summer,
softly blow

H. Elliot Button
(1861-1925)

Henry Elliot Button (1861-1925) was born in Clevedon, England. As a child, he was a chorister at Holy Trinity, Sloane Square, London. He was an editor for Novello and was known as an organist and composer of organ works. He harmonized a number of tunes in The Primitive Methodist Hymnal Supplement with Tunes (1912) and his harmonizations are found in the hymnal of the Church of England. He died in Hampstead, London.

Airs of Summer, softly blow;
Sing your whispering songs to me,
Over the grass like shadows go,
Flutter your wings in the rustling tree;
Curl the wave on sunlit sand,
Rock the bee in its rose asleep,
Scatter odours from strand to strand,
Over oceans in laughter sweep.
Kiss the snow on the mountain's height,
Woo the river that glides beneath,
Sing in the trees your sweet goodnight,
And cease like a baby's slumbering breath.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
