

Blow, blow thou
winter wind

Theodor S. Clemens
(1858-1933)

Theodor Liley Clemens (1858-1933) was the son of a Moravian minister and was born in Yorkshire, England. He taught at Ockbrook, England, and was ordained a Deacon. He became a missionary, serving as pastor in Antigua, West Indies, and in Moriah, Tobago. He lived in the United States from 1917-1922, then returned to England. He died in Brackley, Northamptonshire, England. He trained choirs in West Indies churches and wrote much music for them. His compositions are mainly hymns, anthems, piano and organ pieces, and songs.

Blow, blow, thou winter wind,
Thou art not so unkind
As man's ingratitude;
Thy tooth is not so keen,
Because thou art not seen,
Although thy breath be rude.

Freeze, freeze, thou bitter sky,
Thou dost not bite so nigh
As benefits forgot;
Though thou the waters warp,
Thy sting is not so sharp
As friend remembered not.

As You Like It
William Shakespeare (1564-1616)

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
