

Farewell!

Paul David (1840-1932)

Peter John Paul David (1840-1932) was born in Leipzig, Germany. His father was Ferdinand David, a famous German musician who was leader of the Leipzig Gewandhaus Orchestra, teacher of the great violinist Joseph Joachim, and Mendelssohn's closest ally. He trained in Germany and was brought to England to be the first Music and Choir Master at the Uppingham school, the first appointment of its kind at any school. Under his leadership, the school became recognized for excellence. He died in Headington, Oxfordshire, England.

Farewell! the nevermore has come, the nevermore;
In boyhood's fairyland, I ween,
With Fancy, boyhood's fairy queen,
On life's great shore,
To stand, and work, and dream,
The old school bell now rings your knell.

Then welcome bolder life, wide air, and larger scope,
A bonny welcome, bonny world,
A bonny light on sails unfurled,
Oh! welcome hope,
Then go, then go the while,
Our voices meet and swell in blithe farewell.

Farewell! yet wheresoe'er you go, we breathe a spell,
A thousand sprites at our command,
'Twixt you and us, from fairyland,
Brook no farewell,
The good old days live on,
They shall not be, not be for got.

Rev. Edward Thring (1821-1887)
