O my little sixpence

H. Walford Davies
(1869-1941)

Sir Henry Walford Davies (1869-1941) was born in Oswestry on the England-Wales border. As a child, he learned to play many instruments in an informal band with his brothers, cousins and friends. He became a chorister at St. George's Chapel, Windsor; then entered the Royal College of Music, studying under Parry and Stanford. He taught at the Royal College of Music, Aberystwyth University, and Gresham College, with Leopold Stokowski among his notable students. He served as organist at numerous churches including St Anne's Church, Soho; Christ Church, Hampstead; and Temple Church. He became the first director of music to the Royal Air Force and organist at St. George's Chapel, Windsor. He was a well-known and popular radio personality through his broadcasts on classical music and held the title Master of the King's Musick from 1934 until his death.

O my little sixpence, my pretty little sixpence,
I love sixpence better than my life!
I spent a penny of it,
I lent a penny of it,
And I took fourpence home to my wife.

O my little fourpence, my pretty little fourpence,
I love fourpence better than my life!
I spent a penny of it,
I lent a penny of it.
And I took twopence home to my wife.

O my little twopence, my pretty little twopence,
I love twopence better than my life!
I spent a penny of it,
I lent a penny of it,
And I took nothing home to my wife.

O my little nothing, my pretty little nothing,
I love nothing—
I love nothing better than my wife!
