

Where Autumn Leaves Glow

George W. Fields
(1852-1928)

George W. Fields (1852-1928) was born in Crawfordsville, Indiana, and established a strong reputation as a music teacher in the state. He moved west and held music normal schools and singing schools in Kansas and Iowa. He settled in Shenandoah, Iowa. There he taught music, travelling throughout the region, and operated a music publishing business. His most widely distributed publication was the class book the "Song Eureka." He died in in Shenandoah, Iowa. His compositions were tailored for music instruction.

We will go with cheer
To the woodland near,
Where the autumn leaves do glow,
By the cold frost kissed
And all wet with mist,
They are falling sure and slow.

*Autumn leaves,
Autumn leaves,
Where the autumn leaves do glow,
Autumn leaves,
Autumn leaves,
To the woods away we go.*

We will gather leaves
While the soft wind grieves,
While the soft winds gently blow.
While our hopes are bright
And our hearts are light,
To the woods away we go.

To the home add cheer
From the beauties here,
By entwining garlands fair;
Then in winter drear
They will bring good cheer
As they lend their beauty rare.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
