

Grandpa's Spectacles

S. L. Fish
(1846-1893)

Stephan Loomer Fish (1846-1893) was born in Palmyra, Wisconsin. [Some records have spelling variants "Stephen" and/or "Lohmer" Fish]. He spent a number of years associated with Horatio Richmond Palmer holding music conventions throughout Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin. During last part of his career he taught voice culture, singing and chorus work at Illinois Wesleyan University and was director of the First Presbyterian choir in Bloomington, Illinois. He was also conductor of the Peoria Choral Union. He died in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He composed many anthems and part songs, most of them for convention and educational use.

Oh, mamma, what will grandpa do?
He's gone away to heaven,
Without the silver spectacles
That Uncle John had given;
How can he read the papers there,
Or find his hickory staff?
He'll put his coat on wrong side out,
And make the people laugh!

And when he takes the Bible down
And wipes the dusty lid,
He'll never find his spectacles
Within its cover hid;
There won't be any little girl
He likes as well as me,
To run and hunt them up for him
And put them on his knee.

Oh, dear! he'll never find the place
About "the wicked flee,"
And how the bears ate children up,
(That used to frighten me):
So, mamma, if you'll dress me up
Just like an angel bright,
I'll fix our ladder 'gainst the sky
And take them up tonight.

Martha L. Rayne (1836-1911)

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
