John H. L. Glover
(1840-1889)

John Hippisley Lowder Glover (1840-1889) was born in Monmouth, Monmouthshire, Wales, and trained at the Cathedral Church in Cheetham, Lancashire. He held organist positions at Bolton Parish Church, Manchester, and St. Mark's Church, Staffordshire. He also taught music in Kensington and in Chorlton Upon Medlock, Lancashire, England. He died in Chorlton.

See, the moon is shining brightly,
Silver rays she spreads around,
Over hedge, and bush, and bramble,
With a beauty so profound.
See the lake, like silver shining,
Glorious bursts upon the view;
We behold, with joy and gladness,
Beauties rare, and ever new.

How we joy with heartfelt feeling,
Holy yearnings fill our breast;
Heavenly love o'er all is beaming,
All around breathes peace and rest.
Let us then unite in singing
To the moon our sweetest strains,
Over all her beauty flinging,
She to cheer us ever deigns.

Mary Emma Glover [née Gill] (1845-?)

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
