O. S. Grinnell
(1851-1926)

Orlando Smith Grinnell (1851-1926) was born in Bangor, New York. He studied at Wheaton College in Illinois and became a minister. He served in pastorates in Ionia, Iowa; Pittsford, Michigan; Warrensburg, Illinois; and Wayne, Illinois. He was best known as a preacher but wrote a number of hymns and songs. His best known hymn is "The Little Home Church by the Wayside," written to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Wayne Congregational Church. Another of his popular compositions was "The Battle Cry of Liberty." He and his wife were a popular duet singing gospel songs at churches and conferences. He died in Wayne, Illinois.

Happy songs of joy and love,
Tripping through the sunny grove,
Every heart, every voice,
Beaming with delight,
Singing where the waters play
In the sunlight all the day;
Every heart, every voice,
Beaming with delight.

Oh, what happy, happy days,
Singing merry, joyous lays;
Come with us, come and sing,
Join our happy throng,
Down among the daisy beds,
Sunlight dancing o'er our heads;
Every bird, every flower,
Bids us welcome here.

Pleasant, joyous summer hours,
Singing birds and fragrant flowers;
All is joy, all is love
In the merry May;
When the summer sun is gone,
When our merry songs are done,
Haste away, every one,
To our happy home.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
