Charles Harford Lloyd (1849-1919) was born in Gloucestershire and studied at Magdalen Hall, Oxford. While there, he, along with his friend Hubert Parry, founded the Oxford Musical Club. He was the club's first president. He was appointed organist at Gloucester in 1876 and at Christ Church Cathedral, Oxford, in 1882. In 1892, he became a music teacher at Eton College. Upon his retirement in 1914, he was appointed organist at the Chapel Royal. His choral compositions are mostly anthems and part-songs but he did write a number of cantatas, odes, and instrumental works.

In Sherwood lived stout Robin Hood,
An archer great, none greater,
His bow and shafts were sure and good,
Yet Cupid's were much better;
Robin could shoot at many a hart and miss,
Cupid at first could hit a heart of his.
Hey, jolly Robin Hood!
Ho, jolly Robin Hood!
Love finds out me,
As well as thee,
To follow me to the greenwood.

A noble thief was Robin Hood,
Wise was he could deceive him;
Yet Marian in his bravest mood
Could of his heart bereave him;
No greater thief lies hidden under skies,
Than beauty closely lodged in woman's eyes,
Hey, jolly Robin Hood!
Ho, jolly Robin Hood!
Love finds out me,
As well as thee,
To follow me to the greenwood.

An outlaw was this Robin Hood,
His life free and unruly,
Yet to fair Marian bound he stood,
And love's debt paid he duly;
Whom curb of strictest law could not hold in,
Love to obedience with a wink could win,
Hey, jolly Robin Hood!
Ho, jolly Robin Hood!
Love finds out me,
As well as thee,
To follow me to the greenwood.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
