S. W. Straub
(1879)

Solomon W. Straub (1842-1899) was born in De Kalb County, Indiana, and made music his life's work, residing much of his career in Woodlawn Park, a Chicago suburb. He was active in music education and conducted musical conventions throughout the central Mid-west. He authored many singing school books, Sunday School music books, choir and anthem books, and sheet music. He founded "Song Friend," a musical periodical, and owned and operated a music publishing company in Chicago. His sister Maria Straub was a poet and wrote many hymn texts. Both were active in the temperance movement and wrote works for the movement's use. He died in Chicago, Illinois.

A song of joy and gladness,
Bring we tonight, friends.

For all, we sing our song with pleasure;
List to our greeting.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
