Flora Ellis Wells
(1845-1929)

Flora Ellis Wells (1845-1929) was born in Lima, New York. She was a graduate of Genesee College (now Syracuse University) in Lima and studied organ with Félix-Alexandre Guilmant at the French Conservatory in Paris. She became a well known organist, recitalist, and composer. She held several teacher, music director, and organist positions in Syracuse and Penn Yan, New York; Champaign, Illinois; and Chicago, Illinois. She was also active in The American Association of University Women. She died in East Orange, New Jersey. Most of her compositions were for organ but also included a few songs for voices.

Bring two ears of yellow corn, and then rub, rub, rub,
Till the kernels rattle off from the nub, nub, nub;
Then put them in a hopper made of wire, wire, wire,
And set the little hopper on the fire, fire, fire.

If you find them getting lively, give a shake, shake, shake,
And a very pretty clatter they'll make, make, make;
Hark! hear the heated grains going pop, pop, pop,
All about the little hopper going hop, hop, hop.

When you see the yellow corn turning white, white, white,
You may know that the popping is done right, right, right;
When the hopper gets too full you may know, know, know,
That the fire has changed your corn into snow, snow, snow.

(some sources of this poem add the following stanza)
Turn the corn into a dish, for 'tis done, done, done;
Then pass it round and eat, for that's the fun, fun, fun.

Anon.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
