

Blow breezes
o'er the flow'ry lea

George J. Bennett
(1863-1930)

George John Bennett (1863-1930) was born in Andover, Hampshire, and was a chorister in Winchester Cathedral. He studied at the Royal Academy of Music under Sir George A. Macfarren, winning the Balfe scholarship. He also studied in Germany under Josef Rheinberger. He was organist at Westminster Methodist Chapel; St. John's Church, Pimlico; and was Organist and Master of Choristers at Lincoln Cathedral for thirty-five years. He was also Professor of harmony at the Royal Academy of Music. As a conductor, he conducted the Lincoln Music Festivals; the orchestra of the London Organ School; Church Orchestral Society; and founded the Lincoln Musical Society, and Lincoln Orchestral Society. His compositions include orchestral music, church music, organ pieces, songs, chamber music, piano pieces, and part-songs.

Blow breezes o'er the flowery lea,
The whispers of my heart;
There wild thyme to the honey bee
Its sweet soul doth impart.
O wind of love! catch on thy wing
The light that floods the sky;
When day is setting to her bring
My love's soft lullaby.

Soft gales waft over her,
Spirits of day!
With your wings cover her,
Guide her alway;
Watch o'er her weariness,
Spirits of light!
Over her couch of peace,
Sing ye good night!

William Whiting (1825-1878)

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
