Lamborn Cock & Co.
(1871)

Charlotte Mary Bishop (1848-?) was born in Sunbury, Middlesex, England. She was trained at the Royal Academy of Music and was a teacher of music in Sunbury. She published a few anthems, part songs, and songs.

Leaflets the greenest
Wither away,
Flowerets the fairest
Droop and decay,
Splendors of sunset
Darken in night,
Streamlets in ocean
Vanish from sight.
Yea, and youth's vision,
Brighter than gold,
Fade like the floweret,
Struck by the cold.
Strong hearts of manhood,
Proud of their own,
Fall like the harvest,
Ripened and strown.
Spring scatters sweetness,
Born of the dew;
Day stars the morning,
Herald anew;
Fountains resparkle,
Fed by the rain;
Hearts blossoms blighted,
Live not again.
