(1872)

Thomas Crampton (1817-1885) was born in Sheerness, Kent, England. He became known as an organist, composer, and music expert. He was editor of Pitman's Musical Monthly and was appointed purchaser of music for the British Museum. He composed instrumental music, anthems, glees and part-songs. A special passion was writing music for children. He was musical editor of the Boston periodical Our little ones and the nursery, although he never visited the United States. He died in Chiswick, England.

Out among the bracken
All the livelong day,
Where the birds are singing,
And the lambkins play—
Where the cooing ringdove
And the cuckoo call,
While the glorious sunshine
Shineth overall.

Out among the dewdrops,
Ere the sun's fierce ray
Has, with his bright glances,
Kiss'd them all away;
By the sparkling waters,
O'er the rocks that fall,
While the glorious sunshine
Shineth overall.

Out among the clover
Where the busy bee
Robs the fragrant blossom
And the perfumed tree,
Where the golden wheat-ear
Standeth straight and tall,
While the glorious sunshine
Shineth overall.

Out among the meadows,
Out among the bay,
Fill'd with pleasant fancies—
Dreaming life away—
Gaily let us wander,
Free from worldly thrall,
While the glorious sunshine
Shineth overall.
