Harvey Worthington Loomis (1865–1930) was born in Brooklyn, New York City. He was educated at the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and won a scholarship to the National Conservatory, where he studied with Antonín Dvořák. He lived in New York City as an established composer and was associated with the Indianist movement. He was active as lecturer, and authored numerous journal articles. His compositions include stage works, sonatas, piano works, works for children, part-songs, arrangements, and songs.

The fisher's boat has braved the tide,
Far, far beyond the bell.
His wife and child at home abide.
Fare thee well!

The darkness falls upon the main,
Far, far beyond the harbor bell.
God grant all craft sail home again!
Fare the well!

Above the rocks there gleams a light,
Far, far beyond the bell.
Read well its warning through the night!
Fare thee well!
