Alfred William Edward Plumptre (1840-1902) was born in Saint Leonards, Shoreditch, London, England, first working as a London music hall pianist. He traveled to India as conductor of a theatre company, then to Melbourne, Australia, where he wrote a number of stage works. He later returned to London and was conductor of the Prince of Wales's Theatre and later musical director at the Palace Theatre. He died in Islington, London.

Hie away, hie away,
Over bank and over brae,
Where the copsewood is the greenest,
Where the fountains glisten sheenest,
Where the lady-fern grows strongest,
Where the morning dew lies longest,
Where the black-cock sweetest sips it,
Where the fairy latest trips it:
Hie to haunts right seldom seen,
Lovely, lonesome, cool, and green,
Over bank and over brae,
Hie away, hie away.

Sir Walter Scott (1771-1832)
