(1889)

Ida Kate Marvin Preston (1857–1945) was born in Danbury, Connecticut, and became a violinist and music teacher. She taught music at the Choate School, Wallingford, Connecticut, and was the head of music education in the public schools at Wallingford for many years. She also organized concerts bringing artists and special musical events to Wallingford. She died in New Haven, Connecticut. Her few known compositions were for educational purposes and appear in collections for school use.

Sing, O sing,
Gai-ly swing,
Bob-o-link,
Soft and low,
High we go,
Bob-o-link.

What you think?
Bob-o-link.

Who is Bob?
What a job,
Bob-o-link,
Can we find?
Keep in mind,
Bob's a-link.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies.
