

Come out into the sunshine

William Rhys-Herbert (1868-1921)

William Rhys-Herbert (1868-1921) was born in Ffwrnas, South Wales. As a youth, he showed much musical talent and, saving his money, he bought a harmonium. He became the first organist at Jerusalem Chapel and studied with T. J. Davies of Swansea. He graduated from the London College of Music and went to Canada where he studied at Trinity University, Toronto. He emigrated to the U.S. and was appointed organist at Hennepin Avenue Methodist Church in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and then was organist and choir director at the Church of the Redeemer, Minneapolis. He directed the Elks Glee Club and was principal accompanist to the Apollo Club. He composed numerous operettas for school performance, cantatas, songs, and part-songs. He also wrote choral music and piano sheet music under the pseudonym "W. H. Rees." He died in Chicago after a brief illness at age 53.

Come out into the sunshine,
Come out into the air,
Come out among the blossoms
Blooming everywhere;
Come out into the woodlands,
Where the summer breeze
Blows in and out the branches
Of the waving trees.

Come out upon the meadow,
Over yonder hill,
Come out and gather rushes
Growing by the rill.
Come out into the morning,
Come out into the day,
Come out and see the shadows,
With the sunbeams play.

Maude Elizabeth Inch (1878-1959)
