Addison & Lucas
(ca. 1860)

Josef Rudolf Schachner (1816-1896) was born in Munich, Germany. He became a successful concert pianist with noted appearances in Vienna, Paris, and Leipzig. In 1853, he settled in London as pianist, teacher, and composer. Years later, after many successful years in England, he went to Vienna and died in Reichenhall, Bavaria. His compositions include an oratorio, piano concerti, piano pieces, songs and other assorted works.

Blow, blow, thou winter wind,
Thou art not so unkind
As man's ingratitude;
Thy tooth is not so keen,
Because thou art not seen,
Although thy breath be rude.

Heigh-ho! sing, heigh-ho! unto the green holly:
Most friendship is feigning, most loving mere folly:
Then, heigh-ho, the holly!
This life is most jolly.

Freeze, freeze, thou bitter sky,
That does not bite so nigh
As benefits forgot:
Though thou the waters warp,
Thy sting is not so sharp
As friend remembered not.
Heigh-ho! sing . . .
