Georg Schumann
(1866–1952)

Georg Alfred Schumann (1866–1952) was a respected conductor, teacher, and composer in Germany. He conducted orchestras at Danzig and at Bremen, and was professor and director at the Sing-Akademie zu Berlin.

Over valley, over hill,
Hark! the shepherd piping Shri!l!
Driving all the white flocks forth
From the far folds of the North.
Weird melodies you play,
Following your flocks that go
Across the world today.
Blow, wind!

How they hurry, how they crowd
When they hear the music loud!
Grove and land and meadows full
Sparkle with their shining wool.
Until the forests ring:
Teach the eaves the tunes you know,
And make the chimney sing!
Blow, wind!

Hither, hither, up and down,
Every highway of the town,
Huddling close, the white flocks all
Gather at the shepherd's call.
Upon your pipes of joy;
All your sheep are flakes of snow
And you their shepherd boy!
Blow, wind!

Frank Dempster Sherman (1860–1916)
