

Sleigh-Bells

T. B. Weaver
(1858-1944)

Thomas Byron Weaver (1858-1944) was born in Muskingum County, Ohio. He became a well-known educator in Ohio serving as Superintendent of Schools in Mechanicsburg and Prospect and was Principal of the Standard Americanization School in Cleveland. He was an advocate of music education and introduced music into the curriculum at Prospect. He composed a number of hymns, carols, and songs and co-authored the Smith and Weaver Primary Song Book (1906). He died in Morgan County, Ohio.

Sleigh-bells, sleigh-bells,
Welcome, merry sleigh-bells,
Coming with the snow and frosty, starry night;
Sleigh-bells, sleigh-bells,
Welcome, merry sleigh-bells,
Filling all our hearts with great delight.

*Sleigh-bells, sleigh-bells,
Merry, merry sleigh-bells,
Sleigh-bells, sleigh-bells, everywhere,
Oh! what pleasure,
None of us can measure,
Flying with the sleigh-bells, free from care.*

Moonlight, moonlight,
Oh! the silver moonlight,
Flooding all the landscape like the sun of day;
Oh! what brightness,
Oh! what snowy whiteness,
Fill our hearts with lightness on our way.

Banish sadness,
Spend the hour in gladness,
Fill your heart with music of the merry bells;
All these pleasures
Are from heaven's treasures,
Each in loving measures his love tells.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
