(1843)

George James Webb (1803-1887) was born at Rushmore Lodge, near Salisbury in Wiltshire, England. He trained early in England and was an organist in Falmouth, England. He emigrated to Boston, Massachusetts, in 1830. He was organist at the Old South Church in Boston for nearly 40 years and was organist at the Boston Church of the New Jerusalem. With Lowell Mason, he founded the Boston Academy of Music. He was president of the Handel and Haydn Society. In 1871, he left Boston, taught in New York from 1876-1885, and retired to Orange, New Jersey. He was an editor for the journals "The Music Library" and "The Music Cabinet." He published the books "Vocal Techniques" and "Voice Culture," and was editor and arranger of the collections "Young Ladies' Vocal Class Book," "The Glee Hive," "The New Odeon," "The Vocalist," the "Little Songster," and "Cantica Laudis." He composed organ music, choral music, songs, and hymns. His most well-known composition is his part-song "'Tis Dawn, the Lark is Singing." The original song was well received and later adapted as a hymn with the addition of sacred words "Stand up, stand up for Jesus."

On! on! thou eagle pinioned bark,
Haste on thy watery way!
Thou'l meet the tempest wild and dark
For many a weary day.
For many a day and many a night
Thou'l plough the billow deep,
Or o'er the crested waves, in light
Majestic beauty sweep.

Onward! thou gallant ship! nor fear
The raving tempest's wrath—
outbrave it all, and boldly steer
Right on thy homeward path!
I long to hear the ocean's foam
Dash on my native strand;
I long to breathe the gales that come
From my own Father's land!

I long, oh! how I long to see
The elm-o'er-shadow'd cot;
Of all this clouded world, to me
The only sunny spot.
My home! how sweet the sound! My home!
Scene of my early hours—
Where love, and joy, and pleasure bloom,
Life's bright perennial flowers.
